Thanks JB for checking with Paul.

I'll reschedule.

I thought we might go through some of the emails in which I wanted your input. I think if we do some together, I might be able to reduce the entire amount you need to review by getting a sense of how you think.

Hope you are doing okay.

I talked to Paul Kampmeier today. He is going to check with Nina and get back to me. I am not in the office today. Not positive about tomorrow, but I think I'll be in. Do we need to meet in person, or will the phone do?
